COLLEGE AND SCHOOL.

W. W. Cottingham, LL. D., has been superintendent of the public schools in Easton, Pa., for half a century.

The first college for women in Japan is only two years old, yet it already has more than 800 pupils. Of this number many come from the farthest parts of Japan.

Robert E. Snodgrass, formerly assistant professor of zoology and embryology in the Washington State Agricultural college, has been appointed instructor in entomology in Sanford university.

Hitherto the students at Jena university have been classed in one list, but according to the demand from the Hungarians that they should have one for themselves the authorities have now classed the students under "Austrians" and "Hungarians."

A Custom of Royalty. Emperors and empresses, kings and queens write to each other as brother and sister. Reigning grand dukes also enjoy this privilege when addressing kings, but sovereigns not possessing royal honors are designated as cousin.

Turkish Newspapers. Turkish newspapers are not allowed to print stories before the censor has decided that they are morally unobjectionable.

THRONE LIGHTS.

The king of Italy defeats cards and will not touch them owing to the fact that his father wasted hours over them.

The shah of Persia is afraid of traveling in express trains, and on his European trips orders are always given that his trains must not exceed twenty miles an hour.

Queen Christina of Spain has 200 rings. She makes a point of wearing them all in turn, changing the rings on her fingers every time she changes her dress, which she does as frequently as four or five times a day.

Queen Alexandra can claim to be one of the most prolific of letter writers. At times she has written as many as forty letters in one day with her own hand, and Miss Knollys, her favorite lady in waiting, often gets through a hundred, all written under the queen's personal supervision.

THE COOKBOOK.

Baked beans to which sugar is added instead of molasses have not the rich, strong taste that belongs to those cooked with molasses.

Old potatoes are apt to turn a bad color in the cooking. This may be prevented by putting a tablespoonful of milk into the water in which they are boiled.

A pinch of powdered gum arabic sifted with a little of the sugar put into cream before whipping hastens the process and makes the cream hold the air longer.

Browned flour should always be kept on hand to use for thickening. Prepare it by putting a little dry flour in the oven in a dripping pan. Stir it occasionally and cook until it is a light brown.

SCIENCE SIFTINGS.

A Paris inventor has devised a surgical apparatus, called a mechanical leech, destined to supersede the old method of drawing blood.

Hundreds of electricians are at this moment striving to construct lamps in which nothing is consumed save the electrical energy applied to them—lamps that have the radiance of the sun and the coldness of the moon.

If an electron is represented by a sphere an inch in diameter, an atom of matter on the same scale is a mile and a half, or if an atom of matter is represented by the size of a theater an electron is represented on the same scale by a printer's full stop.

ALL ON FIRE.

A Barre Citizen Tells How Relief Came.

Ever have Eczema? Have any itching skin diseases? Itching almost drives you crazy. You feel "all on fire." Doan's Ointment brings quick relief. Cures Eczema, Itching Piles, And all Itchiness of the skin. Thomas Brady of the firm of Segel & Brady, residence 21 Summer Street, says: "I had an occasion to use Doan's Ointment in the winter of 1897 and I went to E. A. Down's drug store for a box. It stopped eczema on my hands, which was very painful. Its usefulness did not stay there. Mrs. Brady had a sore on her arm and a few applications soon soothed the irritated parts so that they ceased to annoy her. Since then I have recommended Doan's Ointment to many, thoroughly believing that it acts as represented, for during the five years which have elapsed since I first used it, it has not been necessary to resort to even a single application."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
